Where do YOU go when it's back to the drawing board with your Architects & Engineers?

You should be coming to the Professional Liability team at AMW! We have several markets that can write professional liability for architects/engineers including design/build and other construction related services. In addition, we can write land surveyors, contractors, and construction managers/consultants. We have access to both admitted and non-admitted markets.

Architects / Engineers

Our markets can write the following types of firms:

- Design/build firms without a licensed architect/engineer on staff
- Firms with a high percentage of residential and/or condo exposure
- Architects including interior designers
- Structural engineering firms
- Electrical engineering/construction
- Geotechnical engineers

Construction Managers / Consultants / Contractors:

Policies for Agency and At Risk Construction Managers are available.

Coverage can include:

- Owner's representatives and owner's advisors
- Pollution coverage
- Asbestos coverage
- Risk management/loss prevention services
